Please loop in OPA. You might want to call Bill Keener directly. It makes me nervous to respond to NBC without their involvement. This could go sideways.

Thanne,

Lily received a request from NBC for written comment about the Hunters Point allegations. She drafted a response that John and Angeles are reviewing and also asked for my comments. I wanted to run them by you first to see if you have any other concerns (see attached). I will also ask her whether she has checked in with the press office.

Lily said in her email that our response is "due" tomorrow. I'm not sure that we necessarily need to comply with NBC's deadline but said that we'd try to get back to her today.

Thanks,
Rachel
